

NordCAW Poultry Welfare Conference

Date: 13 Nov 2024

Time: 9.00-16.30 CET

Location: SLU, Undervisningshuset, Room L, Ultuna, Uppsala

9.00-9.30	Registration and coffee
9.30-9.35	Welcome and general information	Lotta Berg, Director of SCAW
9.35-10.00	What's on the European poultry welfare agenda?	Anja Brinch Riber, Aarhus University
10.00-10.25	Moving from fast growing to slow growing breeds – experiences and challenges	Miriam Bø Garner, Norsk Kylling
10.25-10.45	Leg stretch
10.45-11.10	Welfare of turkey	Randi Opperman Moe, Norwegian University of Life Sciences
11.10-11.35	Footpad dermatitis in broiler breeders	Ida Thøfner, University of Copenhagen
11.35-12.00	Keel bone fractures – an important welfare aspect for layers	Ida Thøfner, University of Copenhagen
12.00-13.00	Lunch
13.00-13.25	Environmental enrichment – also for poultry	Fernanda Machado Tahamtani, Animalia – Norwegian Meat and Poultry Research Center, Norway
13.25-13.50	Raising poultry without coccidiostatics – Norwegian experiences and welfare implications	Bruce David, Nortura
13.50-14.15	Swedish animal welfare program – focus on broiler breeders and national study of leg health in broilers	Anna Silvera, Swedish Poultry Meat Association, Sweden
14.15-14.30	Welfare of quails	Kerttu Keir, PhD student, Estonian University of Life Sciences
14.30-14.45	Exploring naturalistic environmental enrichment to mitigate early stress in commercially hatched chicks	Enya van Poucke, PhD student, Linköping University
14.45-15.00	Social preference and coping in hens – implications for poultry welfare	Johanna Gjören, Phd student, Linköping University
15.00-15.30	Swedish fika
15.30-15.55	Complex environments for chickens and the effects later in life	Lena Skånberg, Swedish University of Agricultural Sciences
15.55-16.20	Let the chicken sleep	Harry Blokhuis, Swedish University of Agricultural Sciences
16.20-16.30	Closing remarks	Lotta Berg, Director of SCAW, Sweden

